Wood Ridge Summer Guitar Camp

About Us :

This summer camp will start your child on a rewarding and lifelong musical journey. Students will learn the basics of guitar such as learning open position notes, scales, chords, and how to read and count music. Recommended grade levels for participation in this summer camp is K-3rd grade.

What We Offer :

Starting August 5th, we will be offering a two week summer guitar program at Wood Ridge Civic Center. Classes will take place Monday through Friday from 9:00 AM – 11:30 AM. The camp will start Monday, August 5th and end on Friday August 16th with a brief concert showcasing the students' progress as well as a pizza party.

Itinerary :

9:00-10:00: Understanding your instrument: Here, students will work on techniques, dexterity exercises and positions commonly used in playing guitar.

10:00-10:30: Musicianship: Students will work on music literacy and how to make reading music exactly like reading a book.

10:30-11:00: Snack (Please do not bring snack with peanuts and/or peanut butter.)

11:00-11:30: Guitar Ensemble: This class will work on instructing students how to play in a group setting.

Registration :

- Students with their own guitar can register for $175.
- First time students looking to attend camp and rent a guitar can register for $200.

To register, please fill out the form on the following page.
